

Well Located Grazing/support Block

2012 Manaia Road, Kaponga, South Taranaki

Price: By Negotiation

If you are in search of a convenient support block to compliment an existing dairy unit, or a stand-alone drystock property, an excellent opportunity has come to the market on Manaia Road.

This 49 ha property is currently operated as a dairy support block carrying approximately 150 stock throughout the season which is made up of a mixture of weaners, heifers and beef animals. Comprising a substantial portion of flat to rolling contour the property also provides an opportunity for cultivation or supplement production with approximately 200 bales of silage made on the property each season.

The property is well serviced by a central race with cattle yards and loading ramp at the front of the property ensuring efficient stock management. Water supply on the farm is via a pump located at the river near the front of the property which supplies all areas of the property. Fencing and pastures across the property are also to a very good standard with consistent fertiliser use ensuring strong and healthy pastures.

This property is a support block or drystock unit that provides plenty of possibilities and will suit a number of potential purchasers. Take the time to come and have a look for yourself.
