The front deck off the lounge presents more entertaining space and outlook, a great place to relax and being under cover means you can use it all year round!

The good size garage has room for extra storage whilst the fully fenced back garden is the perfect kids playground or somewhere safe for the pets to play.

With great street appeal it could look absolutely wonderful with some interior refurbishment, your opportunity to unleash further potential.

Homes like this are fast becoming scarce so if you want a great family home then you should definitely view this property and buy it.
