

Calling All Families

114 Cordelia Street, Stratford, Stratford District

Price: By Negotiation

Almost 30 years ago the current owners bought this property and as its time for them to move on it gives you the opportunity to live here and enjoy it as much as they have.

This is an extended FOUR bedroom (plus office or rumpus room), 1970s property and offers easy living with its low maintenance exterior and spacious 142m² floor area which allows ample room for the whole family.

Aluminium joinery throughout, separate shower room alongside the bathroom, log fire and single car shed all set on a 827m² flat section.

There are also another two neighbouring (commercial) titles up for grabs here so if you are looking for some large sheds or somewhere to run the business why not strike a deal and buy all three.
